

HANSON DECLARED DRUNKARD BY JURY

Young Man's Attraction Wife Fights Mother's Proceeding in Vain.

CAN'T MANAGE ESTATE

Will Receive Big Sum From Stanford Estate in Years to Come.

BATON, June 17.—On the ground of habitual drunkenness Walter L. Hanson, the twenty-four-year-old son of Mrs. Almira L. Hanson of Brooklyn, was declared today incompetent to manage his person and estate, following a hearing held before a Sheriff's jury.

The young man, who, it was said at the proceedings, will receive $50,000 from the Leland Stanford estate at the death of his mother, did not oppose the proceedings, but his wife, who was Henrietta Reutti, an actress, was present, and her attorney unsuccessfully objected to the hearing.

The young man's mother also heard the evidence, but did not testify. Witnesses from New York and Saratoga said that young Hanson had frequently declared his intention to "drink until he died" and that he had given away an automobile and valuable jewelry, and that his health had been impaired by alcoholism.

Hanson is now in a Canadian camp, where he was after a reconciliation between himself and his mother a few weeks ago. Previously he had brought suit against her to recover a $50,000 legacy from his grandfather's estate and she had refused to pay it.

An important proposed amendment of the Erdman act provides that the arbitration board can be increased from three to six persons, to be selected by each side and others to be named by the first four.

WOODRUFF SPEAKS IN KINGS.

Judge Watson Favors an Independent Progressive Democrat.

At a meeting of the Kings county committee of the National Progressive party in the Johnson Building, Brooklyn, last evening, Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman, reported to the 500 persons present the substance of what he had said to the members of the Municipal Citizens' committee.

The only other speaker at the meeting was former Judge William Watson of the Twenty-second Assembly district, who expressed himself in favor of the nomination of an Independent Progressive Democrat for Mayor. He said that if Charles S. Whitman, were elected Mayor the result would be the rehabilitation of the Republican party.

PLAN TO AMEND ERDMAN ACT.

Committee Representing Railroads and Employees Agree.

It was announced last night that a committee of railroad presidents, presidents, heads of railroad brotherhoods and officers of the National Civic Federation had prepared a definite plan for furthering the passage by congress of a bill amending the Erdman act.

ACCUSED OF POISONING A WELL.

Karitan Dog Catcher, Who Had Killed Many Pests, Held in $2,000.

SOMERSET, N. J., June 17.—John Grose, the official dog catcher of Karitan, was sent to the Somerset county jail today in default of $2,000 bail on a charge of throwing poison green into a well used by persons who are in the vicinity.

Grose, under the direction of the Karitan Board of Commissioners, has shot hundreds of unprovoked dogs in the streets and consequently he has hundreds of opponents. The police say he was betrayed by his wife.

BARUCH SAYS HEALTH IS IN SARATOGA SPRINGS

Columbia Professor Deplores Flittings for German Mineral Waters.

SARATOGA, N. Y., June 17.—The members of the New York State Mineral Springs Reservation Commission were the guests of honor to-night at a dinner given at the Casino by the Saratoga Springs Medical Society, over 100 guests were present from New York city and many cities in northern New York.

The principal address was by Dr. Simon Baruch, professor of hydrotherapy in Columbia University. Other speakers were Dr. J. H. Brown, chairman of the commission, and Dr. Benjamin Tracy of New York, a member.

Dr. Baruch said in part: "The question often arises why in a country blessed with a variety of climates, of mountains, sea and plain, and with a greater variety of mineral springs than any other country in the world, there is not one dependable health resort to which a family physician can as confidently send his patients as does a doctor in Germany."

"Most resorts are content with their present fame," Saratoga Springs, on the contrary, courts investigation. The analysis of its waters, of its climate, of its location, was made by distinguished chemists of the State Health Commissioner's laboratory. This is the only instance of the kind in my knowledge."

"You must impress upon you that you are the prime factors in the success of Saratoga Springs, and the larger your knowledge of diagnosis, pathology and especially of human nature, the better will be your results. It is not the water, the air, the food or the medicine you prescribe, but the tact and skill you apply that will bring health and happiness to your patients and reputation to Saratoga Springs."

No remedial agent demands more intelligent prescription than does water. It cannot be denied that there are few if any springs in the world that offer a wider field for therapy than those which it is your good fortune to prescribe here."

"I shall watch with deep interest the development of this resort and the beneficent results directly accruing not only to the people of this town but to the people of the United States who will be spared the necessity of crossing the ocean in anxious search for health and strength."

Your example too will encourage the development of other springs and thus save the annual outpouring of treasure that now enriches European resorts."

NOW SAYS SHE IS NOT GUILTY.

"Mrs. Fitzhugh" Says She So Pleaded Because She Was Confused.

Despite her plea of guilty on Monday to two charges of grand larceny, stealing purses in churches, "Mrs. Randolph Fitzhugh" yesterday maintained that she is innocent and claimed that she pleaded guilty because she was confused by the lawyers.

Yesterday "Mrs. Fitzhugh" who is in the Tombs waiting sentence, said she had reached Federal Hall, where she pleaded guilty, and would try to get the plea reversed. He will leave Washington at midnight, she went on, and see the Judge to-day.

"I am perfectly innocent," the prisoner said. "I never stole two pocketbooks. I pleaded guilty because they told me I would go to jail anyway."

"All my life I have been the victim of many men. When I was 14 years old I made a runaway match with a man. He died and I returned to my family in Washington."

"In 1911 I married Alfred Northrup in Baltimore. Our child, Jacques, is now in care of friends in Brooklyn."

Mr. Northrup, she said, is now in South America. Her family, she continued, has not befriended her and her desire is either to go free or be punished enough to reflect on her family.

FIRST NORWEGIAN LINER HERE.

The Kristianiafjord Lined Commanded by Man Mikado Honored.

The steamship Kristianiafjord, first Norwegian-American liner in commission and the biggest vessel registered in all of Scandinavia, arrived yesterday from Bergen, making the trip in less than nine days. She will take back 300 cabin passengers, mostly Norwegian Americans, who have been compelled to sail under other flags than that of their own country.

The new ship is commanded by Capt. S. C. Hjordahl, who was in the Pacific trade as skipper of the steamship Sado Maru, and who as officer of the auxiliary Japanese navy got three decorations from the Mikado.

Out of 1,000 registered voters 95 ballots were cast, about forty automobiles were used during the day by both sides.
